COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE.
I will commence my assessments for the corporation on the 1st day of February for the present year. As there appears to be some doubt as to what should be given in under the bond of money, bonds, &c., and as to what a merchant for the benefit of those interested they will find annexed an extract from the State revenue laws defining those subjects of taxation.
GEO. DUFFEY, Comm'r. of Revenue.

[Extract from State Revenue Laws.]
The value in this State of all bonds, notes, and other evidences of debt, (the solvency of which, in cases of doubt, as well as the value thereof shall be determined by the commissioner,) including bonds due from railroad and canal companies, bonds of lower counties and cities, and bonds of other States and corporations, demands and claims, however evidenced, owing or coming to you, whether due or not, from debtors residing out of or within this State or country, whether secured by deed of trust, or by judgment or not, deducting from all such bonds, demands, or claims, not otherwise deducted, owing to others from you as principal debtor and not as guarantor, endorser, or surety. Each person is required to exhibit and make oath to the value of such bonds, notes and other evidences of debt due and payable to such persons, in excess of $100; the amounts of such bonds and notes and other evidences of debt under $100 each, to be given in under oath, in the aggregate, which said list shall be signed by the commissioner, and returned to the tax-payer. [The aggregate of principal interest, and exchange shall constitute the amount of a bond, demand or claim due and payable, and the principal, with interest rebated when the bond, demand, or claim bears no interest, shall constitute the amount of a bond, demand or claim not due and payable. But no bond, demand, or claim constituting a part of the capital of a business done out of the State shall be included.] The value of capital, including money, credits or other thing remaining invested, whether said investment was made originally in this or in any other State or country, or used or employed in business out of this State, by yourself, your agent, or other person for you. The value of all capital of incorporated joint stock companies, building or loan associations, not otherwise taxed. [Real estate belonging to such company, shall not be held to be capital, but shall be listed and taxed as property and not as capital.] The amount of capital invested, used, or employed in any trade or business, not otherwise taxed. [Money and credits actively used and employed in carrying on trade or business, including goods, wares and merchandise on hand, and all solvent bonds, demands or claims made or contracted in the course of business during the preceding year, shall be held to be capital in such trade or business, and shall not be taxed otherwise than as such capital; but real estate shall not be listed as such capital, but shall be assessed and taxed as other specific property but nothing herein shall be held to exclude from taxation any property which is the subject of such business.]

AUCTION SALES.

By Green & Wiso, (Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers.)

PUBLIC SALE.

—OF THE—

VIRGINIA TELEGRAPH LINE.

By authority of a deed of trust made to me by the Virginia Telegraph Company, bearing date the 1st of July, 1871, to secure the payment of the first mortgage coupon bonds of said company; also a deed of trust bearing date 1st of January, 1873, to secure the payment of the second mortgage coupon bonds of said company, both deeds having been duly recorded in all the counties through which the telegraph line runs, I will, as trustee named in said deeds, offer for sale by public auction, in the city of Alexandria, Va., in front of the City Court House, on TUESDAY, the 29th of January, 1878, at 12 o'clock m., the ENTIRE PROPERTY OF THE SAID VIRGINIA TELEGRAPH COMPANY, to wit: The line of telegraph extending along the Washington City, Virginia Middle and Great Southern Railroad from Alexandria to the town of Staunton, in Augusta county; and from Alexandria, along the Washington and Ohio Railroad, to the towns of Leesburg, Hamilton and Clarke's Gap, in Loudoun county—in all about 200 miles of wire—together with their rights, franchises, instruments, poles, wire, insulators and brackets belonging and appertaining to the said telegraph line.

Terms of Sale: One third cash on day of sale; the residue in two equal installments, payable three and six months from day of sale. The bonds of the purchaser, with good personal security, will be required for the deferred payments. The title to be retained until all the purchase money be paid. The property to be sold at the expense of the purchaser upon failure to comply with terms of sale.

TRUSTEE'S SALE—Under authority of a deed of trust from John B. Farr's heirs, the undersigned, special commissioner, named in said decree, will, on MONDAY, the 21st day of January, 1878, in front of the Court House, in the city of Alexandria, Va., sell to the highest bidder by public sale the REAL ESTATE of which John B. Farr died seized, except the widow's dower. This land will be sold in small lots, of which a plat and survey will be exhibited the day of sale. The land is without buildings, is of good quality, and its location near the village renders it desirable.
Terms of sale—So much cash in hand (to be apportioned ratably to the several lots) as will pay the cost of suit and expenses of sale, and the residue in three equal annual payments, to bear interest from the day of sale, and to be secured by the bonds of the purchaser, with good personal security, and retention of title until the last payment is made. Conveyancing at the cost of the purchaser. This thing will be sold at private sale if not sold on the day named.
